

Seminar title	FINANCIAL MODELLING OF INVESTMENT PROJECTS WITH STATE PARTICIPATION: PRACTICAL ASPECTS
Date	30 October– 3 November, 2017
Duration	40 academic hours
Venue	Academy of Public Administration under the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan
Participants	Civil servants who deal with projects with state participation (public-private projects)
Training forms and methods	Lectures, practical sessions in interactive format

Purpose:

- to obtain practical skills of investment projects financial modeling.

Objectives:

- to introduce with the life cycle of investment project with state participation;
- to discuss instruments and best practices of attracting investments and public-private entrepreneurship;
- to consider the application of financial models of investment projects with state participation: statutory requirements.

BRIEF OUTLINE OF THE SEMINAR

What is an investment project? Life cycle of investment projects with state participation. Analysis of project's investment attractiveness. The main investment mechanisms in Russia and Kazakhstan including the mechanism of public-private partnership (PPP). The principles of state participation in investment projects realization.

Structuring investment projects with state participation. The basics of financial modeling. Application of investment project with state participation: statutory requirements.

Commercial and financial close of the project. Investment projects risks management. Risk matrix. Approaches to comparative advantage of PPP projects principals realization.